

Eric Driever, RA, CASp

- Principal Architect DSA HQ /Codes and Standards
 - Manager of DSA Headquarters Access, CASp, Fire/life Safety and Sustainability programs
 - Responsible for regulation and policy development for CBC Accessibility regulations (Ch 11B), CALGreen for schools and CASp Program
- Executive Director of the State Historical Building Safety Board
- 9 Years prior experience as Senior and Supervising Architect with DGS/RESA managing the Access Barrier Removal Program, and as Senior and Supervising Architect responsible for design and construction projects for State agencies.
- 15 years prior experience in private architectural firms focused schools and other commercial projects across California and China.
- CASp since 2012

School/Military:

Served honorably in the Army 3/325th Airborne Battalion Combat Team, 82nd Airborne Division, Vicenza Italy 1987 – 1991

Sierra Community College 1991-1994 (Associates of Architectural Drafting)

Cal Poly San Luis Obispo 1995-2001. (Bachelor of Architecture)